

KMS (committee for mobility of blind and visually impaired persons) offers on its website a database of acoustic traffic lights in Austria (www.kms.or.at/atas.php). This information includes the ID number, the location and technical features like associated tactile paving or trigger mechanisms. Intuitive and accessible search and filter features allow sighted and non-sighted persons to easily get orientation about acoustic traffic lights at familiar as well as unfamiliar places.